

Our referee process is the same across the Legal 500 series. Firms supply details of referees in spreadsheets, separate from their editorial submissions. We then process and deduplicate the data, and make initial contact with referees by email. We endeavour to contact all referees provided on time and in the correct format.

We place no limit on the amount of referees that you may provide, and all will be contacted. When deciding on the number of referees for a given practice area, please bear in mind that – on average – the referee response rate across all guides is between 25-30%. The more referees you provide, the greater your chances of us receiving substantive feedback on the practice in question.

Providing referees is not compulsory, and a firm will not be excluded on the basis that referees have not been provided. However feedback – from clients, introducers/referrers of work, and counsel – is an essential element of the information considered by the editorial researchers in assessing rankings and writing accompanying editorial.

Referee spreadsheets

All referees should be provided in spreadsheets in the prescribed form. At legal500.com/assets/pages/about-us/get-involved.html, you will find dedicated editorial submission guidelines and dedicated referee spreadsheets for all areas of the Caribbean research. Right click to select the relevant spreadsheet.

Points to note

Please do not provide referees in any format other than the template spreadsheet. If you do, we may not be able to process the spreadsheet, and your referees may not be contacted.

Please do not delete ANY of the columns. If you do, we may not be able to process the spreadsheet, and your referees may not be contacted.

Please do not insert ANY information (for example headings or explanatory notes) that is not asked for.

Please do not fill out the spreadsheet in capital letters.

What happens next?

The data contained in spreadsheets is extracted and used to generate an automatic email from the relevant researcher to the referee.

We sent around 300,000 referee emails globally in the course of the research for The Legal 500 during 2017, and we will handle a similar number during 2018. We will be sending out referee emails shortly after the editorial submission deadlines.

Frequently asked questions

Q. We would like to include a client who instructs our corporate and commercial, dispute resolution and trusts/private client practices. How do we fill in the spreadsheet?

A. Add the client three times. Our extraction process allows us to deduplicate, by firm.

Q. How does your deduplication system work?

A. As the guide is covered by only one researcher, if one referee is provided by multiple firms and multiple practice areas, they will only receive one email from The Legal 500.

Please note that all referees must reach us by the stated deadline. Any referees received during the two week period after the deadline will be contacted slightly later, but will be treated differently. A late referee will only be contacted if that individual has not already been submitted in a spreadsheet by any other firm before the official deadline date. This will ensure that referees do not receive multiple emails from us.

Q. What questions do you ask clients?

A. 1) How long have you used the firm in this area, and on what type/value of work do you instruct it?
2) How would you assess the overall level of service? (Factors may include response times, business acumen/industry knowledge, appropriateness of advice, strength-in-depth of team, and value for money).

- 3) Which individual lawyers would you single out as being particularly good? What do you see as their strengths and qualities?
- 4) How does the firm compare to any others of which you have experience in this area? Would you recommend any other firms/lawyers?
- 5) Do you have any other comments?

Q. Can you copy the firm in on emails?

A. No. The referee process is confidential.

Q. Can you contact us before you contact the referees?

A. No. Please only include referees in the spreadsheet whom we are authorised to contact.

Q. I've made a mistake, can I submit an amended spreadsheet?

A. If you submit an amended spreadsheet, referees included on both may be contacted twice, depending on the timing. Rather than resubmitting, you should contact Stephanie Ezimako in the first instance, email stephanie.ezimako@legal500.com, tel +44 20 7396 5682

Q. Can I send more than one spreadsheet, as some of our practices have not yet signed off on their referees?

A. Yes. But please ensure that the subsequent lists do not repeat referee details already supplied, and be aware that we will not deduplicate against spreadsheets already processed.

Q. How should I name the spreadsheet?

A. Spreadsheets should be named:

[Country]_[Firm name]_[Business Practice Area].xls

Q. What are the deadlines for referee spreadsheets?

A. The deadlines for referee spreadsheets can be found in the editorial submission guidelines, and on The Legal 500 website.

Q. How do I contact the Legal 500 if I have questions?

A. Please contact us at editorial@legal500.com, or email Stephanie Ezimako, stephanie.ezimako@legal500.com, tel +44 20 7396 5682.
